Organization of the Church.

October 29th, 1865.

BELIEVING that the interests of religion require the formation of a Church in Ward One, we, a company of believers who profess faith in Christ and acknowledge him to be the Saviour of mankind, to effect this purpose, in connection with the Society which has been formed to build a house of worship in said ward, do hereby organize ourselves into a Church of Christ.

NAME.

In love to the memory of the deceased ministers of New England, this Church shall be called the Memorial Church.

BOND OF UNION.

Love to God and good will to men, shall be our bond of union.

PRINCIPLES.

This Church shall be Congregational in its form of government and discipline, in accordance with the legal interests of the Society with which it is connected. It will seek the relations of christian fellowship with other evangelical churches, by the mutual transfer of members, by ministerial exchanges, by sacramental communion, by mutual councils, and by all suitable modes of co-operation.

PROFESSION.

For substance of doctrine as set forth in the Scriptures, we adopt the articles of faith which are contained in the following formula:

Confession of Faith.

We believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth: and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose again from the dead, He ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. — The Apostles' Creed.

We believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.

We believe that the Holy Scriptures came not by the will of man, but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost: that they are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for instruction in righteousness; and are able to make us wise unto salvation by the faith which is in Christ Jesus. — 2 Peter 1: 20, 21; 2 Tim. 3: 15, 16

We believe that all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God: that whatsoever is born of the flesh is flesh: and that except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. — Romans 3: 23; John 3: 5, 6

We believe that God is love: that in this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent His only begotten Son into the world that we might live through him: and that this is his commandment, that we should believe on the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another. — 1 John 4: 8, 9; 1 John 3: 23

We believe that according to the eternal purpose and grace of God, Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners: that he hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God: that he that believeth on the Son hath life, and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him. 2 Tim. 1: 9 — 1 Tim. 1: 15 — 1 Peter 3: 18 — John 3: 36

We believe that the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, whom the Father sends in Christ's name, convinces the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment: and that as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the children of God. John 15: 26 — John 16: 8–11 — Romans 8: 14

We believe that Christ hath instituted in the Church;—which is the household of God, the Body of Christ, the temple of the Holy Ghost, the pillar and ground of truth—two Sacraments, Baptism and the Lord's Supper, to be carefully observed by all believers from age to age. Eph. 2: 19–22 — Eph. 1: 22-23 — 1 Tim. 3: 15 — Mark 16: 16 — Matt. 28: 19 — Matt. 26: 26-30 — 1 Cor. 11: 23–26

(To be said by the pastor after the creed has been recited.)

"One Body, one Spirit, one Hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all, and in you all." Amen. Eph. 4: 4–6

Covenant.

SINCE it hath pleased God to manifest Himself willing to take repentant and believing sinners into covenant relation and interest in Him, to become a God to them, and own them as his children, and accordingly, to command them to consecrate themselves and their children to Him;

We do therefore, humbly, sincerely, and gratefully enter into this gracious covenant.

We take the true and only God to be our God, consecrating ourselves and ours unto Him forever. Matt. 11: 29

We take upon us the yoke of Christ, our Saviour, to be his servants and disciples, and, henceforth to live not for ourselves, but for him who died for us, and rose again. 2 Cor. 5: 15 Romans 8: 1

We yield ourselves up to the quickening and sanctifying power of the Holy Ghost, to walk henceforth, not after the flesh, but after the Spirit in newness of life. Romans 6: 4

We will strive, in all things, to walk worthily of Him, who hath called us unto His kingdom and glory, and to obey the grace of God, which teacheth, that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously and godly in this present world, looking for the blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour, Jesus Christ, who gave himself that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. 1 Thess. 2: 12 Titus 2: 12–15

We also promise to submit to the government of God in His Church, and to walk with our brethren in love, as Christ also hath loved us; to be kind, tender-hearted, and forgiving one to another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven us, and to strive for the peace and prosperity of the body of Christ. Eph. 5: 2 Eph. 4: 32

(Thus, trusting in the grace of God, you promise.)

Response of the Church.

WE then, as a Church, do cordially welcome you into our fellowship and Communion, giving thanks to God, who has inclined your hearts to believe in His beloved Son, our Saviour.

We also promise to walk together with you in love, as becomes members of one holy family; to watch over you with gentleness, and to offer our prayers for and with you to the great Head of the church, that we may grow up together in the beauty of holiness before him.

"Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone." Eph. 2: 19, 20

We pray the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory to be strengthened with might by His spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth and height; and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God. Eph. 3: 15–20 Eph. 3: 15–29 Eph. 3: 15–20

Benediction.

THE Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord lift up the light of His countenance upon you, and give you peace. Num. 6: 24, 26

Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church by Jesus Christ, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen. Eph. 3: 20, 21

Standing Rules.

SECTION I.

1. Membership.—Candidates for membership with us, whether by profession or letter, shall be examined by the pastor and officers of the Church, in regard to their Christian faith and practice, and if no reasonable objection be made to their reception when their names are presented for ratification by the Church, they shall become members, the former by public profession and assent to our articles of faith and covenant; the latter by assenting to the covenant.

2. Removal.—Any member of this Church removing to another place, is expected to ask for a letter of dismission and recommendation to a Christian church at the place of his or her residence, on or before the expiration of one year. Neglecting so to do, after having been advised in the matter by the Church committee, and failing within six months thereafter to comply with this rule or to give good reasons for the delay, this Church may at its discretion declare that such person has broken his or her covenant with the church, and that the obligations of the Church to watch over that member have ceased.—2 Thess. 3 : 6.

3. Admissions and Dismissions.—Notice of all admissions and dismissions shall ordinarily be given at a public service, previous to action thereon by the Church.

SECTION II.

1. Officers of the Church.—The regular officers of the Church shall consist of a pastor and three or more deacons, and a standing committee of the Church.

In all cases of private offense, when the measures prescribed in the 18th chapter of Matthew's gospel shall have been taken, complaint is to be made to the above committee instead of the Church.

The committee, having examined into each case which may come before them, shall make due report to the Church. The committee shall have power to call upon any of the brethren of the Church to aid them in the discharge of their duties.

The Church do not lessen the obligations of individual members to watch over one another, by the authority given to the Church committee.

6. Business Committee.—A business committee of three or five in number, whose duty shall be to have charge of any business needed to be transacted by the Church, and to prepare a report of the same to be presented to the Church for action thereon.

2. Church Report. — The officers of the Church shall prepare and submit at each annual meeting an accurate list of the members of the Church and congregation, with the place of residence of each; also names of such members of the Church as are permanently absent from the town; also the names of such as have been absent for the term of six months; also the names of such as have ceased to be members, and the causes thereof; also report the state of religion in the Church, stating what it has done for the cause of Christ, and general benevolent objects during the year.

3. Sabbath School Report. — The superintendent of the Sabbath school shall make a quarterly report of its condition to the Church. The Church will employ a teacher to instruct the members of the school in sacred music, and in every possible way support its interests.

SECTION IV.

A choir shall be organized for the purpose of promoting congregational singing on these occasions.

SECTION V.

Sunday Services.—At the Sunday morning service, the Lord's Prayer shall be repeated by both minister and people, at the close of the prayer of general supplication.

At the opening of this service the congregation will rise with the choir and unite in singing (to the tune of Old Hundred) the Doxology. The congregation will also rise with the choir for the singing of the second and third hymns of the morning and afternoon service. The members of the church will bow their heads during the prayers; and at the close of the concluding prayers of each service, with bowed heads receive the benediction.

No standing rules shall be annulled or altered unless the same shall be agreed to by two-thirds of the male members present at the annual meeting.

Resolutions of the Church.

Adopted October 29, 1866.

Believing that an organized company of believers in Jesus Christ, and who acknowledge him to be the Saviour of mankind, form and constitute a Christian church; that a Congregational Church is one which vests all ecclesiastical power in a company thus organized, and that the Holy Catholic Church is the universal Christian brotherhood. Therefore

1. Resolved,—That the Memorial Church of Springfield, having declared in its creed its belief in the Holy Catholic Church, welcomes to its membership and communion all who love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity and truth, and who agree with it concerning the essential doctrines of the Christian religion, by whatever name they may be called.

2. That the success of the Church upon this basis during the first year of its history—a success which has brought at least five denominations into a happy communion of personal feeling and action—is our sufficient justification for re-affirming this basis as a ground of Christian liberality, a guide to a wise and sound policy, and especially as the true basis for organized Christian effort in the Ward in which our Church is located.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

OBJECT.—The object of this School is to organize the adult members of the Church and Society into classes for the study of the Bible, and to extend the advantages of religious instruction to the children and youth, who may be gathered here.

ARTICLE II.

OFFICERS.—The officers of the school shall consist of one male and one female Superintendent, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Librarian, who shall be chosen by ballot, at the annual meeting of teachers, at which, or at any other business meeting, seven shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE III.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of teachers shall be held on the evening of the last Monday in October. All other meetings shall be subject to the call of the Superintendent, or five of the teachers.

ARTICLE IV.

MALE SUPERINTENDENT.—The male Superintendent shall have the general supervision of the School, and shall preside at all its meetings. He shall arrange, number, and seat the classes; also, make transfers from one class to another, whenever, in his judgment, the interests of the School require it.

He shall maintain a vigorous administration of every department of the School, and see that everything is conducted in a becoming and proper manner. He may appoint an assistant.

ARTICLE V.

FEMALE SUPERINTENDENT.—The female Superintendent shall assist in the supervision of the female department of the School.

ARTICLE VI.

SECRETARY.—The duty of the Secretary shall be to keep carefully, and in good order, the register of the School, minute and record all its transactions, conduct its correspondence, and discharge all other duties appropriate to his office. He may appoint an assistant.

ARTICLE VII.

TREASURER.—The Treasurer shall receive all moneys collected in and belonging to the School, and keep an account of the same; he shall also report at the annual meeting of the teachers in October, or oftener if required.

ARTICLE VIII.

LIBRARIAN.—The Librarian shall attend to all matters relating to the library, and report at the annual meeting, or any other meeting if required.

ARTICLE IX.

DUTIES OF TEACHERS.—1. To be punctual in attendance at every session of the School, and in case of necessary absence to provide a substitute.

2. To preserve order in their several classes; to permit no scholar to leave the room without the permission of the Superintendent, and to report promptly to him every violation of any of the rules of the School.

3. To make all possible exertions to promote the general object of the School; to visit their scholars at their homes, especially when sick or absent; to report, when called upon, the state of their classes and the names of absentees; and to secure, in the highest practicable degree, the advancement of their scholars both in knowledge and piety.

ARTICLE X.

SCHOLARS shall not be entitled to the use of the library until they shall have been in the School, at least, two Sabbaths, nor without the approbation of the teacher.

ARTICLE XI.

BOARD OF MANAGERS.—The officers and teachers shall constitute a Board of Managers, by whom persons of suitable qualifications may be elected teachers on the nomination of the Superintendent, a majority of those present being necessary to a choice.

ARTICLE XII.

TEACHERS' MEETINGS.—The Board of Managers shall establish and sustain teachers' meetings, to be held monthly or quarterly, or oftener; where they may discuss and adopt any measures which shall be for the best interest of the School.

ARTICLE XIII.

The teachers shall continue their instruction during the time allotted for recitations, and there shall be no conversation except on the subject of the lesson, or growing out of it.

ARTICLE XIV.

AUDITORS.—The Superintendent and Secretary shall audit all accounts pertaining to the School.

ARTICLE XV.

AMENDMENTS.—This Constitution may be altered by a two-thirds vote at any business meeting, if one month's notice shall have been given of the proposed alteration.
